

NIXON PEABODY'S MINDY FERRENTINO WOLFLE NAMED TOP IN-HOUSE MARKETING EXECUTIVE

Mindy Ferrentino Wolfle, Long Island Regional Marketing Manager at the national law firm of Nixon Peabody LLP, has been named "Top In-House Marketing Executive" by the Long Island Advertising Club and Long Island Business News. Ferrentino Wolfle was presented with a trophy by New York State Commissioner of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, Bernadette Castro, at the Second Annual Long Island Marketing Executives Awards, held on November 20, 2003 at the Crest Hollow Country Club. She was selected from a group of five outstanding competitors in her category (medium corporation; $5mm to $25mm in sales), and was recognized for her business accomplishments, leadership in the field, mentoring, and professional organization involvement, as well as her civic and community affairs activities.

According to Kevin S. Law, Managing Partner of Nixon Peabody's Long Island Office, "Mindy Ferrentino Wolfle is a valued member of the firm, and her efforts on behalf of our Long Island region are noteworthy. She is a recognized leader throughout the Long Island business community in the field of marketing, communications and public relations, and has brought great value to us through her excellent communication skills, creativity and enthusiasm. We join with LIBN and the Advertising Club in congratulating her on this well-deserved honor."

Ferrentino Wolfle is a founding board member of the Long Island Affiliate of United States Women's Chamber of Commerce and co-chair of its Diversity Council; a board member of the International Association of Business Communicators, Long Island Chapter; an advisory board member of the Long Island Alzheimer's Foundation; a former executive board member of the Long Island Center for Business & Professional Women; and an active participant in the Long Island Fund for Women & Girls and the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Long Island Chapter. She is the creator of two highly successful seminars on business networking. Ferrentino Wolfle was the recipient of the MS Society's Leadership Award in 2001; was recognized as one of 90 Women for 90 Years" by the Nassau County Girl Scouts in 2002; and the recipient of the International Association of Business Communicators' Achievement in Communications" award in 2002.